Fun Psychological Love / Personality Test Analysis

1. The roads represent your attitude toward falling in love.

If you chose the short one, you fall in love quickly and easily.

If you chose the long one, you take your time and do not fall in love easily.

2. The roses represent give and take in your relationship.

The number of red roses you selected for your bouquet of ten represents how much you are willing to GIVE in a relationship.

The number of white roses you selected indicates how much you EXPECT in a relationship. Therefore; if a person chose all red with one white, he/she gives 90% in a relationship, but only expects 10% back.

3. The maid represents your attitude in handling relationship problems.

If you asked the maid to get your loved one, then you may beat around the bush maybe asking a third party to intervene in problems. Avoidance of problem runs high.

If you want to fetch your loved one yourself, then you are pretty direct. If there is a problem, you are likely to confront it and deal with it. You want to work things out right away.

4. The placement of the roses indicates how often you'd like to see your boyfriend/girlfriend.

Placing the roses on the bed: you need lots of reassurance in the relationship and you'd like to see your loved one every day, if possible.

Placing the roses on the window sill: You don't expect or need to see your loved one that often; seeing them just once in a while is okay.

5. Acceptance

Finding your boyfriend/girlfriend asleep: You accept your loved one the way they are.

Finding your boyfriend/girlfriend awake: You expect him/her to change for you.

The short and long roads now represent how long you stay in love.

If you chose the short road, you fall out of love quickly and easily.

If you chose the long road, you tend to stay in love for a long time.
